My dear Mr. McCone:

There is enclosed, as of possible interest,
Copy 20 of the monograph entitled "The Communist Party Line, July 1961-December 1961."

The monograph sets forth the position taken by the Communist Party, USA, on the major issues of national and international significance, as determined from a review of authoritative communist publications.

Your attention is invited to the Summary and the Conclusions, which appear at the beginning of the monograph.

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, which appears to read "J. Edgar Hoover". The signature is stylized with a large initial "J" and a long, sweeping underline.
